Re: Nunez v. City of New York, 11 Civ. 5845 (LTS)

Your Honor:

Pursuant to the Court's Individual Practice Rule 2(h), Plaintiffs seek permission to file a single memorandum of law not to exceed 100 pages in support of the forthcoming motion for contempt and appointment of a receiver.

As discussed at the August 10, 2023 status conference, the Plaintiff Class and the United States will file a motion seeking to hold the Defendants in contempt of the Consent Judgment and remedial orders in this case, as well as seeking the appointment of a receiver. The contempt motion and the application for a receiver each involve different legal standards, as well as a discussion of the Prison Litigation Reform Act. Further, the factual record supporting contempt and receivership is long and complex, involving over eight years of reports from the Monitor. Therefore, a memorandum of law of 100 pages is needed to fully explain the factual and legal basis for the relief sought here.

Defendants take no position on Plaintiffs' request for an oversized memorandum of law, though they have stated they ask that Defendants' opposition brief be granted the same page length.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
